

WE NOMINATE

Esther Hill Roberts, an enthusiastic and conscientious Princetonian for the past quarter-century, who this week relinquished her duties as a member of the Borough of Princeton's Board of Education to undertake one of the most challenging assignments in the history of an education-minded community—the direction of the Borough's newly instituted program for “trainable youngsters.” Next September, in what was once the old kindergarten room of the Witherspoon School, Mrs. Roberts will start her work with a small group of star-crossed children to whom normal public schooling has hitherto been denied simply because they are the tragic victims of circumstances far beyond the reach of man-made controls.

In providing educational facilities and guidance for mentally retarded children, some of whom are capable of doing what children half their age can do, the Borough is implementing newly enacted New Jersey legislation by enlisting the assistance of a skilled specialist and utilizing a “team approach” to an ages-old social problem. School officials and Mrs. Roberts, now returning to an active teaching post for the first time since establishing her home here, have proceeded slowly but purposefully. They have carefully assayed their responsibilities, have tested the “trainability” and “educability” of applicants and have projected a five-day, 20-hour week (including lunches and rest periods) for a limited group ranging in age from seven to 12.

The daughter of a distinguished president of the University of Missouri and wife of one of Princeton's beloved deans, the late Edward H. Roberts, of Princeton Theological Seminary, Mrs. Roberts was graduated from Missouri with the Class of 1922 and devoted the next several years to winning recognition in the then little-explored field of occupational therapy. She studied for a year in the Orthopedic Hospital School in Los Angeles, moved on to the Boston (Mass.) School of Occupational Therapy and was subsequently associated with institution's training clinics as well as with the Robert Brigham Hospital, sometimes referred to as the incubator for many of the theories currently stressed by the country's leading medical centers.

To her continuing studies of experimental programs in New Jersey Mrs. Roberts has brought the experience accumulated as an innovator in the Los Angeles School System, as a past president of the Parent-Teachers' Association of the Borough's Elementary Schools and as former Children's Welfare Chairman of the Princeton League of Women Voters. Wherever she has been, whether founding new departments in the Los Angeles' School for Crippled Children or in its Cerebral Palsy Clinics, or holding forth as a Sunday School Superintendent here in the First Presbyterian Church, Mrs. Roberts—now 52—in her own words has “always been close to children or has been affiliated with ventures concerned with children.”

For knowing that all service to others ranks the same and that “there is no last nor first,” for “reinvesting” in the teaching profession all of the understanding she has gained as mother, P.T.A. President and School Board Member; for contributing to the well-being and happiness of a tragic few; she is our nominee for

After All, What's Your Hurry?
As the three-day July 4th holiday weekend neared, New Jersey residents came face to face with a blunt question: would their highway habits during the 72-hour period serve to add to the mounting toll of death by automobile that is already running ahead of last year's tragic total?

The early months of the year brought hope that the number might be decreased, but May and June saw the trend reversed. This week, the number killed since New Year's day stood at 330, seven more than during the corresponding period in 1954.

The year's first big holiday weekend, a similar three-day stand for Memorial Day, may have provided the symbol for 1955. Advance estimates of the national highway toll were exceeded by the time those critically injured in smash-ups joined those whose death had been instantaneous.

Summer Hours in Effect

Offices in the Borough and Township Halls will be open from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. from July 1 until September 6. This does not include the police department.

All municipal offices will also be closed on Monday, July 4, it was announced by Clerks Joseph R. Nini of the Township and Robert F. Mooney of the Borough.

Mercer County this year is one of the State's few in which the rate is lower than it was a year ago. Through June 26, 16 had died, compared to 20 during a like period in 1954. If enough attention is paid to the fact that a few seconds often mean a life-time, the roll call at breakfast Tuesday morning will record a 100% attendance.

Who Owns the Shopping Center? George W. Warnecke, president of Property Credit Corporation of New York, announced last week that his firm had taken over the Princeton Shopping Center in a second-mortgage foreclosure. His statement touched off a debate on the subject of the multi-million dollar center's current status and brought an announcement of one plan for its future development.

Mr. Warnecke said that Clearview Associates, the group that had planned and built the development, had been in arrears in payments on its mortgage, a loan of $339,000, since March. He said that at that time, he had given Theodore R. Potts, president of Clearview Associates, until June 1 to bring his payments up to date.

The mortgage on the center, $2,350,000 with the Traveller's Insurance Co., Hartford, will be assumed by Property Credit, Mr. Warnecke said. He added that the company plans to run the center, using the same methods, including increased maintenance and advertising, which it employs in shopping centers in Los Angeles and Cleveland.

On the same day, however, Mr. Potts declared in a press conference that Clearview Associates had sold the property to an unnamed group, owned by Mr. Potts as president, and two Chicago real estate men, David Rockefeller and James T. Black. He said that this group will be able to raise the money to pay off the mortgage before the property is transferred by the Chancery Division of the New Jersey Superior Court.

Mr. Potts said that his new organization has further plans under way for the development of the center, including a second story to be built over a number of the present stores. This office space, Mr. Potts declared, has been leased to two firms who will hire between 1,500 and 2,000 persons for sales and management programs.

The center was sold from Clearview to the second firm for $3,748,000, the cost valuation, Mr. Potts stated. He added that he felt that the money for the extension project, an estimated $2,000,000, would come from Mr. Warnecke.

Mr. Warnecke, when told of the plans that Mr. Potts had made public, commented that it "is a surprise to me" and that he had not heard anything from Mr. Potts about it. When asked — Continued on Page 2

Rotary Installation. Arthur R.
Wengel, president of the Princeton Printing Company and the Wengel Service Corporation, as formally installed as president of the Rotary Club of Princeton at Tuesday's meeting at the Nassau
Tavern Hotel. Wengel succeeds Maurice A. Mather, who was honored by the club for his "distinguished contributions to Rotary."

Other officers of Rotary for 1955-56 are: Edmund D. Cook, first vice-president; Paul R.
Chesebro, second vice-president;
John P. Silvester, treasurer; and Tristram B. Johnson, secretary, succeeding the secretary for the past two years, James T. Richmond.

John W. Knuffman, Ralph S.
Mason and Mather were designated members of the board of directors for the year ahead, while the Rev. Mr. Charles W. Marker, pastor of the Methodist Church of Princeton, was named editor of "The Wheel," the service organization's two-year old publication.

Nine members of the club were cited for "100% attendance" during the period, January 1—May 31, 1955: Edwin H. Carnarius,
Judge Chesebro, Mr. Cook, Clyde
D. Deltzler, Nelson W. Deyo,
Dwight W. Edwards, Walter B.
Jefferson, Jr., Dr. Curt O. H.
Kayser and J. Edwin Wilson.

Building Costs Cut. A reduction in building costs of $5,300 will be made possible by revised contracts on the new high school, Roger O'Kane, chairman of the property committee, told the Borough Board of Education at its Tuesday meeting.

The biggest reduction will come in the use of marble for facing on the building, a saving of $2,500
below planned costs. Contracts have also been changed on a sewer drainage system, the acoustic tile, and the concrete which will be used in the new addition.

At the meeting, Mrs. Grace
Loetscher, wife of Dr. Lefferts Loetscher, Seminary professor, was installed as a new member of the board. She replaces Mrs. Es-

Tournament Winners

Mrs. T. D. Slingerman and Mrs. Richard Parsells were the winners of women's tournaments completed this week at the Springdale Golf Club. Mrs.
Slingerman took the handicap tournament, for which 16
members qualified, with Mrs.
Hans Bauer as the runner-up.

The Harry Kinnell Tournament on Tuesday, in which 24 members competed, went to Mrs. Parsells with a net of 77.
Mrs. J. T. James was runner-up in this event with a net of 78.

he said is believed to have started in a waste basket from a match or cigarette, was confined to the stair-well in the junior, or western, end of the building.

Freeholder Thorne's Will. Mrs.
Gladys K. Thorne, widow of Freeholder Edward A. Thorne, is named in his will as his principal beneficiary. The value of the estate was not revealed when the will was admitted to probate this week by Surrogate William J.
Connor.

One instruction to Mrs. Thorne as executrix of the estate is that the Nassau Street drug store he operated for nearly 30 years be sold "as soon as possible." Specific bequests were made to his daughter, Mrs. Patricia Thorne Carter of Princeton, in the amount of $5,000; and to his brother, Horace of Philadelphia, in the amount of $1,000. The balance of the estate will go to Mrs.
Thorne.

Ross to Europe. Henry B. Ross, headmaster of Princeton Country
Day School, flew to Rome Saturday to begin a six-week supervisory tour of Italy and Germany
on behalf of American Field Service International Scholarships. He will serve in a liaison capacity with this organization, the U. S.
State Department and selection committees in the two European countries. Much of his time will be spent interviewing applicants for AFS scholarships in this country during the coming academic year.

Mr. Ross conferred this week in Rome with the Italian selection committee and interviewed prospective scholarship students. He will fly shortly to Germany, visiting various cities and working in ther H. Roberts, who will teach "trainable children" in the Borough School system. (See "Woman of the Week.")

The group re-elected Irving Mershon, a member of the board for 25 years, to the post of secretary, a position he has held for 16 years. Mrs. Kathleen James was re-elected as deputy secretary.

The board voted to end baseball on the high school field this summer as a result of two complaints received about broken windows and the danger to small children living in the homes paralleling the field. B. Woodhull Davis, Superintendent of Schools, said that a new back-stop is planned which will permit the resumption of play next year.

He also reported that the fire in the Nassau Street School on Friday had caused approximately $500 damage. The blaze, which

It's New to Us

From Maine to Knish. In the cold vastness of the frozen food locker at Davidson's, we found a lobster the other day. He was only half there, of course and was frozen stiff, but we were surprised to see him at all.

He's from Maine, split, dressed and ready to slide into a broiler. The price is $1.50 for the half.

Broiling a lobster, steak, or chicken is a delicious way to prepare the meat, but a troublesome way when it's time to clean up. Davidson's suggests, therefore, the Broil-A-Foil tray.

For 59c you get five aluminum foil trays that fit onto your regular broiler. When you've finished with one, toss it out and save yourself a scrub job.

Back to the frozen delicacies. Frozen strawberries have been packed in plastic containers without syrup, fresh and whole as they come from the field. An eight-ounce container is 49c. Whole blueberries, also firm and without syrup, are 45c.

For your next party, try sliced sturgeon or sliced smoked salmon, packed by the Vita people at $1.20 for half a pound. Denmark ships Limfjord mussels, smoked and packed in olive oil.

Then we found a little surprise

ALL TRAVEL and HOTEL RESERVATIONS

package that holds 24 frozen hors d'oeuvres. They are like the ones you make yourself: small wheels, squares or layers of bread, spread with various concoctions involving cheese and meat.

Finally, we think you'll be interested in some products from Manichewitz. There are frozen potato knishes, liver puffs, potato patties and little cocktail frankfurters (kosher) wrapped in dough blankets.

Fill the Glass. After Davidson's, the next and most logical stop is the Wine and Game Shop, 6 Nassau, where you'll find plenty to serve with the smoked sturgeon. For summer dining, W. & G. suggests chilled white wines, and they can serve you in this capacity with anything from a 70c sauterne to Chateau Yquem at $180. For in-between, try California Almadens.

Incidentally, Wine and Game frowns on the practice of referring to inexpensive wines as "cooking wines." If you use wine in cooking it should be the best you can afford, even if your cooking isn't on a par with Ruben Blou.

Here is an old favorite: Chilean Riesling at 99c. But if the occasion is as sparkling as the wine, try a sparkling rose, the dry Imperial Moet et Chandon, 1949, at $8.25.

Green Crew Cut. Trim your lawn as you mow it with a third wheel for your mower called the Eclipse Trimming Wheel. This wheel, locked firmly to your hand-mower, gives a new center of balance to the mower.

The trimming wheel and one of the mower-wheels push along the ground while the second mower wheel is suspended over the edge of the curb, flower bed, or whatever you are trimming. When you aren't using it, the wheel can be lifted up and set out of the way. Cost: $4.50 At The Wright Store, 130 Nassau.

Foremen who are supervising the mowing and trimming of lawns may do so from an old-fashioned hammock, complete with small pillow and long fringe. We saw it suspended from the ceiling of The Wright Store.

You may use two trees, or buy a stand which the store has ready for such a contingency. This hammock comes in brilliant flamingo and charcoal, or two shades of green, and is made of loosely-woven cotton fabric.

General Electric rescues heat sufferers with a window ventilator that has glass panels on each side of a 10-inch fan. This fan may be used for intake or exhaust, and the fan with its glass panels will fit into sash or casement windows. It can even be used on a table or as a floor fan. The price is $34.95.

Indoor cooks, especially cake mixers, may use flossy new flour sifters ($1.69) that are decorated with colored pictures of cakes, sheaves of wheat, leaves of bread, or a gingham domestic scene that shows a child waiting for cookies to come out of the oven.

association with the State Department, which will underwrite a year's stay here for many German boys and girls.

Clear indication of the growth of the international program is provided by these figures: during the past year, 460 students from Europe studied in the United States; during the next 12 months, the number is expected to increase to between 650 and 700.

Tentatively scheduled to study here are a Swedish girl, a Greek girl and a German boy. They will stay in Princeton homes — as others have in recent years — and attend Princeton High or Miss Finn's School.

Menand Assistant Dean. Howard Menand Jr., who has served as administrative assistant to Dean Joseph C. Elgin of Princeton University's School of Engineering, has been appointed Assistant Dean of the school. Dr. Harold W. Dodds has announced.

His appointment is effective this Friday. The new post will entail administrative responsibilities for coordination between the School of Engineering and the rest of the University. Among his duties are the advising of freshman engineering students, the direction of the fall orientation period for newly-arrived students and his lectures in the Department of Mechanical Engineering.

Mr. Menand, who graduated from Princeton in 1936 and received a degree two years later from the Harvard Business School, has served as an executive with Westinghouse. He is president and director of the Community Planning Associates, and president of his University class.

In addition, Mr. Menand is a vice-president and director of the Central New York Wire Corporation, a member of the Civil Defense Council of Princeton and a solicitor for the Princeton Community Chest and Y.M.C.A. Building Fund campaigns. At Princeton University, he was advertising manager for the "Daily Princetonian," a member of the Triangle Club and president of the Inter-Club Council.

Borough Court Action. Magistrate Paul R. Chesbro fined 11 drivers Tuesday and gave another Princeton area resident a 30-day suspended sentence in the county workhouse. The latter was Leon Butler, Mount Farm, Brunswick Pike, who pleaded guilty to creating a disturbance while intoxicated on a Trenton-Princeton bus. Those fined $15 each for speeding included Richard M. Welch, 14 Leigh Avenue; Peter C. Phillips, Mount Lucas Road; John Vagi, Ridge Road, Monmouth Junction; and Paul Schaffter, 3 Chambers Terrace. Louis Bovino, 275 Witherspoon Street, paid $10 on a similar charge. Mrs. Sonia Romeo, 17 Olden Avenue, paid $15 for failing to give the proper signal when leaving the curb. George H. Macon, 16 Jackson Street, and Victor Vegas, Mutton Hill Road, Rocky Hill, were fined $12 for passing "stop" signs.

Blackmail Bobbied. A 21-year-old, unemployed Princeton resident was quickly arrested by Township police last week, following a clumsy attempt at extortion from a Township couple. Their names have been withheld by police.

The culprit, Turner Stevens, of 37 Leigh Avenue, pleaded guilty before Township Magistrate Louis R. Gerber after being apprehended by Sergeant Anthony J. Nini. He was held without bail for the grand jury.

Stevens was caught picking up the dummy parcel which supposedly contained $200, exchanged for "nude pictures of the couple taken through the bedroom window." According to the police, Stevens called the unidentified couple at 11:30 on Thursday night and demanded $200 for the pictures he claimed he had taken. He said he would call later to give further instructions, but when he hung up, they called the police.

The following morning he called again and told the intended victims to leave the bundle, containing the cash, in the Perry — Continued on Page 6

BUSKINS AND SOCKS
 "Gramercy Ghost," a two-act comedy which stayed for a while on Broadway in 1951, will be the opening effort for the Buskins and Socks summer troupe. The unveiling at the Murray Theater is set for Monday, July 4, at 8:30, with a six-night run planned.
 Involved in the action are a young lady and the ghost of a Revolutionary War soldier, and between them they find the answer to the young lady's romantic problems. Margaret Chow takes the lead as Nancy Willard, while Grenville Cuyler acts the part of Nathaniel Coombes, the ghost.

Other performers in the piece, which is directed by Ali Ghitto, a former German film star, include Morgan Holman, Betsy Sessions, Jonathan Jay, Campbell McCluskey, Lois Ellis, Melinda Young and Richard Almond, all of Princeton. Suzanne Hull of Ridgewood and Ronald Mucha of Skillman fill out the cast.

Sandra Jefferson, a student at the American Theater Wing in New York, is handling the production end of the performance. Pat Miscal, who designed the sets for the company's first production, "Time Out for Ginger," has done the same for "Gramercy Ghost."
 Tickets at $1 for the first three nights of the week and $1.50 for last three are on sale at Murray box office. The telephone number is 3539.

COMMUNITY PLAYERS
 Josephine Cornforth and A. Munro Wade will take the leads in the Community Players' summer production, "The Taming of the Shrew," which went into rehearsal this week.
 The group will give the Shakespearean farce in modern dress at the Murray Theater during the week of July 25 through July 30. The prologue to the play, which is sometimes omitted, will also be given in the Community production.

Miss Cornforth, a graduate of Miss Fine's School this year, has had featured and leading roles in school plays, including "Quality Street" and "The Rivals." At the Mount Vernon Seminary, where she started her high school training, ing, she was awarded the Drama Club Cup for her work in freshman year. Katharina is one of her first Shakesperian roles.

 Mr. Wade, who is well known to patrons of the Players, will take the role of Petruchio and act as co-director of the piece with Thomas Potter. Wade, who was a member of the original University Players' group when it started in Falmouth, Mass., in 1928, played the entire season with the group last year at the Murray.

As evidence of his directing ability, Mr. Wade has three successful shows, "The Male Animal," "St. Joan" and "Both Your Houses," behind him. In addition, he has collaborated with Mayor P. MacKay Stuges in writing three musicals, "Along the Road," "Sailing On," and "Magie Well." His most recent work has been his playing in the Frye's "The Lady's Not For Burning."
 Virginia Hamill will open in the role of Bianca, the sister of Katharina. She has been seen before by Community patrons in the role of Rosa in "Summer and Smoke" and of Irma in "The Madwoman of Chaillot."

Other players in the cast include Deborah Chess, Robert Matthews, Peter Van Zandt, James Hopkins, Chalmers Dale, Manuel

Martinez, Richard Freemantle, Lorin Zissman, James Wheeler and Libert Diaporli, all of Princeton, and Mary Lou Kelly of Trenton.
 Portraying the characters in the introduction will be Douglas Dougherty as the lord; Co-director Potter as Christopher Sly; Mary Gonzales as the hostess and Letitia Wheeler as the page.

BUCKS COUNTY PLAYHOUSE
 In another Monday opening, the Bucks County Playhouse will launch "Point of No Return" for a two-week engagement. This will conclude the Paul Osborn Festival, which has produced "Oliver, Oliver" and "Mornings at Seven," showing presently.
 The play, which received rave reviews from New York critics at its opening, stars Donald Woods, Philip Bourneuf and Nancy Marchand. This will be the only showing of the work on the summer circuit in this area.

A problem-comedy, the play is built around the growing realization by a man that his life is no longer uncertain in its outcome. Although it could be written as a bitter satire, it is turned rather into a study of a man who realizes the time for decision is past and turns to make some attempt at finding an identity for himself.
 Aaron Frankel, who opened the Bucks County season with "The King of Hearts," will be in charge of staging the huge cast. W. Broderick Hackett has designed the —Continued on Page 8

Street Terminal, Trenton, at 10 a.m. With this, the Trenton police were alerted by Township forces.

At 9:20 a.m. on Friday, the youth called once more and directed the family to put the money in an envelope and drop it in front of the Kingston Mill. A woman employed by the Township volunteered to be the decoy and dropped the cash for Stevens to find.

When he climbed out of his car, he was seized by Sergeant Nini, who had hidden in a side road; Patrolman John Feeley, who was in a building across the street; and two State Troopers. Stevens eventually admitted to the police that he had taken no pictures, Chief James Campbell said.

Township Court Action. Courtland Williams of Rosedale Road received a $25 fine and a 30-day suspended sentence in the county workhouse Tuesday night from Township Magistrate Louis R. Gerber. He was charged with assault and battery after striking Mrs. Eva Redding of 27 Green Street when they became involved in an argument in front of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy F. Coppedge of Rosedale Road.

Drivers fined by Magistrate Gerber included Donaldson H. Williams of Princeton and Mrs. Lucille Petrock of Belle Mead. Each paid $15 for speeding.

Miss Fine's Elects Trustees. Fred A. Eichelberger, a faculty member at the Lawrenceville School, has been elected chairman of the board of trustees at Miss Fine's School for 1955-56. Mrs. E. Baldwin Smith will serve as vice-chairman; Mrs. Harold H. Freedman of Frechold as secretary; and Mrs. Gouverneur Turnbull as treasurer.

Mrs. Everett P. Tomlinson and Dr. David B. Miller have been elected as new members of the board. Continuing in office will be Walker W. Stevenson, Jr., finance committee chairman; Kenneth Kassler, buildings and grounds; Hugh D. Wise, Jr., in charge of planning community use of the building; Mrs. Dan D. Dickey, Parent Council and Alumni Association representative; Mrs. Douglas H. MacNeil, whom Mr. Eichelberger succeeds; Mrs. J. Richardson Dilworth; Bernard Kilgore, and Lewis Perry Jr. of Lawrenceville. A faculty representative to replace Mrs. William Lockwood will be named by the teachers in the fall.

Solo Trip at 11. A boat trip to Europe by himself will be taken this summer by 11-year old Hans Frederick Winterkorn, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Winterkorn of 116 Prospect Avenue.

The journey comes as a prize for making the high honor roll at the Witherspoon School, where Hans is a member of the sixth grade. He will sail this month, to be met in Germany by his father and will travel in both that country and in France before returning to Princeton.

Police Learn First Aid. Nine Princeton police have completed a first aid course and received

Red Cross certificates. Robert E. McCloskey, former president of the First Aid Squad, provided the instruction in weekly two-hour classes during the past five months.

Borough police enrolled were

Chief John H. Smith and Patrolmen Frank Maguire and Ralph Procaccino. Township police included Sergeants Lester Anderson and Anthony Nini, Patrolmen Norman Servis, Walter Emann, Fred Porter and William Ellis.

The Township police will enroll shortly in an advanced first aid course, in which Mr. McCloskey will also be the instructor. They will be joined by Patrolman Richard Steiner of that department.

COMING TO PLAYHOUSE: Clark Gable is starred in "Sol-

next Thursday.

News Of The Theatres

multiple settings which the performance makes necessary.

THE PLAYHOUSE

The Seven Year Itch (June 30-July 5) is a comedy of many,
many laughs and not too much substance. Tom Ewell as the "summer bachelor" and Marilyn Monroe as quite the girl upstairs do a fine job in a show in which flaws should be cheerfully overlooked by all.

Soldier of Fortune (July 6-9)
Clark Gable returns to his stereotype in this drama set in the environment of Red China and surrounding area, such as Hong Kong. In a snappy working out of the old triangle, he wins Susan Hayward and plows through more
Red Chinese than can be counted.
The screenplay is an adaptation of Ernest K. Gann's book, but otherwise than that there can be no comparison with the excellence of "The High and the Mighty."

Among others in the cast are Michael Rennie, who is featured but minimally used in the course of the show; Alex D'Arcy as a hard-drinking French expatriate, and Tom Tully, as a treacherous and conniving pub owner. But the majority of the responsibility belongs to Miss Hayward and Mr.
Gable.

bond issue necessary for the building of a new school and additions to the Valley Road School,
was passed Thursday, 282 to 62,
by Township voters.

The school planned on Little-while a two-room addition to the present school will enable it to expand its facilities considerably.

It is hoped by the School Board

on the project in the early fall, after approval of the project by State officials.

Emeritus Hospital Trustee.
 George C. Wintringer, a former member of the Hospital Board of Trustees, has been elected an emeritus representative on the institution's governing board, John H. Wallace Jr., President of the Board, announced.

The only member exceeding Mr.
 Wintringer in length of service is
 B. Franklin Bunn, emeritus trustee who has been a member since 1926. The Board is composed of 15 individuals elected by the Hospital Corporation and the mayors of the Borough and Township.

Mr. Wintringer, a resident of Princeton for four decades, is controller Emeritus of Princeton University. He resigned the post in 1914 after 29 years of service with the school. The first president of the Community Chest, he has worked with as many as nine service organizations at a time.

Hospital Status Raised. Princeton Hospital has been approved as a school for the training of medical technologists by the Council on Medical Education and Hospitals of the American Medical Association, Administrator John
 Kauffmann announced.

Under this authorization, the institution can admit four women students for eighteen months of training in the field of diagnostic laboratory procedures. The students will be under the supervision of E. Geoffrey High, Senior Technologist, and Dr. Thomas S.
 Harvey, Pathologist.

Requirements for admission include at least two years of college training, with two years of chemistry and one year of biology. The first class is expected to be enrolled in October, 1955.

Scout Camp to Open. Camp Tamarack, sponsored by the Princeton Girl Scouts, will open with 65 campers on Tuesday, beginning

Square Dances Announced

Square and round dancing
 will be held in the Washington's Crossing Park pavillion every Friday, during July and August. Mr. and Mrs. Hans J.
 Schulze, Y.M.C.A. callers, will conduct the program.

The dancing will be continuous from 7:30 until 10 each Friday. There will be a selection of old-time favorites, as well as number of newly-created dances. The park is near the bridge on the Pennsylvania side of the river.

a two-week season on River Road,
 near Kingston.

The day camp, starting its eighth season, will have campers ranging from 7 to 13 years old.
 The staff of 20 will be supervised by Co-Directors Mrs. Joseph Hoff
 and Mrs. Richard Woodbridge, while the camp chairman is Mrs.
 Justus Vollbrecht.

Hours at the camp, which offers a program in arts and crafts, nature study, cooking-out, dramatics, hiking and camping skills, are 9 to 4. Campers are divided into groups based on age, school
 grade and camping experience.

Company B at Camp. The 75
 officers and enlisted men of Company B of the 253rd Tank Battalion, New Jersey National Guard, have begun their two-week summer training period at Camp Drum, New York.

First Lieutenant Joseph Barn-
 acz, leader of the Princeton convoy detachment, reported that the 300-mile trip had been completely successful in terms of training and smooth accomplishment of the objective. Nearly half the company travelled in the trucks.

He said that the trip was particularly satisfactory, since a major portion of the route was along the New York Thruway.
 This is reported to be the first
 New Jersey National Guard detachment to travel over that route.

Training began on Monday morning, after two days in camp.
 During the opening period, the unit drew gear and bedding, cleaned the barracks, and was assigned tanks and other equipment in preparation for maneuvers.

While in camp, the troops will assist in the training of recruits
 from the entire 103rd Armored Group. In addition, they are studying combat operations with
 M-47 tanks and tank platoons.

Teacher Receives Grant. Mrs.
 Evelyn M. Carlile of 61 Wiggins Street, is one of ten New Jersey teachers who have received scholarships to the State University's Fifth Annual Government Institute, opening in Trenton on Monday. She teaches first and second grade pupils at Deans.

The scholarships, which cover registration and tuition fees, were awarded on the basis of participation in civic affairs and the completion of pre-requisite college-level courses in social sciences. At the Institute, Governor Meyner
 and other state officials will serve as the "faculty" for symposiums
 on state government.

Soon and Stace Retire. Professors Robert M. Soon, former chairman of the Department of Philosophy, and Walter T. Stace, of the same department, are the only members of the university faculty retiring at the end of the academic year this Friday.

Professor Soon, who was graduated from Hamilton College in 1907 and received his Ph.D. from Columbia, came to Princeton in 1911 and served as Chairman of the department from 1934 to 1952. A specialist in the history of philosophy and the author of "Greek Philosophy Before Plato," Dr. Soon is the recipient of an honorary L.H.D. from Hamilton.

Professor Stace, a native of England, won the $2500 Reynal and Hitchcock Prize in 1942 for his "The Destiny of Western Man." A member of the faculty since 1932, his other major works include "Time and Eternity," "The Concept of Morals" and "The Nature of the World."

Before entering an academic career, Dr. Stace served as a British Civil servant in Ceylon for more than 20 years. During his service, he wrote several of his more important works, including "A Critical History of Greek Philosophy" and "The Philosophy of Hegel."

A student at Bath College, England, and Fettes College, Scotland, Professor Stace taught metaphysics at Princeton. A graduate of Dublin University in 1908, he received his doctorate in literature there in 1929.

Resigning the two men on the department's staff will be Dr. Carl G. Hempel of Yale University and Dr. Gregory Vlastos, who held the Susan Lynn Sage Chair of Philosophy at Cornell. Professor Hempel is a specialist in logic and Professor Vlastos's field of concentration is classical philosophy.

Nine Princetonians Honored. Ten area students were among the 263 members of the graduating class of Princeton University on the Honors Lists announced by Registrar Howard W. Stepp.

New Jersey, with 55 representatives, led the 29 states, District of Columbia and four foreign countries mentioned on the list. Thirty-seven per cent of the class of 587 were mentioned on the list.

Of those honored, 30 received Highest Honors, while 64 received High Honors and 169 were awarded Honors. Two men, Ross Dabney and James B. Hurlock, received Highest Honors twice, in the Department and the Special Program in the Humanities.

Area students honored include Carl L. Pope of Lawrenceville, Honors in Psychology, and the following Princeton residents: Frederick J. Alving, Highest Honors in Engineering; Michael Arin, Highest Honors in Mathematics; Alex S. Burstein, Honors in Art and Archaeology; James W. Donnelly, Honors in Religion; Raphael H. Levery, High Honors in Biology; Robert F. Magnus, Honors in Economics and Sociology; Ricardo A. Mestres Jr., —Continued on Page 1

PLYMOUTH DESIGNS WITH YOU IN MIND!

to put extra value in the low Plymouth price!

This message is for people who think all low-price cars are "pretty much alike." Of course, all cars have horns and wheels and headlights, but there's a lot of difference in the features of a car that add up to v-i-t-u-e. Here are just a few of Plymouth's features that will add to your comfort and your convenience. In the low-price 3, you'll find them only in Plymouth. Drive a new Plymouth today; see how much more its "personalized design" gives you!

Cornerposts of Plymouth's glamorous new Full-View windshield are swept back, top and bottom (not bottom only), for better, safer vision.

Plymouth's Oiltite fuel filter is located back in the fuel tank (not on the engine) to protect the entire fuel system and engine from dirt and water.

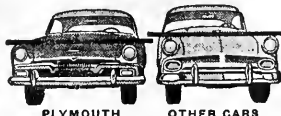

The PowerFlite Range Selector is mounted on the dash, near the ignition key—the logical place for easiest use. You can change speed by touch alone!

For more direct pillowing action, Plymouth mounts the longer-stroke front Offroad shock absorbers inside the big front coil springs.

Plymouth places two hydraulic brake cylinders in each front wheel (other low-price cars use only one) for smoother stops, greater reliability.

17 FEET LONG

If you ever have a blowout, your Plymouth has Safety-Rim wheels which help hold a deflated tire on the rim while you slow to a safe stop.

Plymouth's brilliant Forward Look styling gives you better forward visibility by letting you see more of the road directly ahead of the car.

Plymouth is the BIGGEST, LONGEST, ROOMIEST car of the low-price 3. In fact, you can pay as much as $500 more for a medium-price car that's smaller than Plymouth!

Sports in Princeton

Sailing Club Plans Regatta. The Princeton community will have a sports "first" this holiday week-end when the newly-formed Carnegie Sailing Club holds its first regatta on Carnegie. It will be staged Monday, July 4, at the Kingston end of the lake.

While this regatta will be open to all classes of boats, future racing will be formalized. A Penguin fleet is planned, within membership of the International Penguin Class Dinghy Association. Interest has been expressed by yacht clubs in Monticoking and Red Bank, as well as Sea Cliff, L. I., in coming here with trailers in boats during the fall and "frost-bite" seasons.

The Carnegie Sailing Club, organized last spring, will provide small sailboat owners in the Princeton community with a central mooring location and other facilities. Founders and current officers are C. H. Von Nordheim, commodore; H. C. Dohra, vice-commodore; C. V. Olson, rear commodore; Doris Smith, secretary; and Edmund D. Cook, treasurer.

The club has 22 members and will welcome other owners of small sailboats in this community. Its fleet consists of Penguin Class dinghies, Barnegat Bay Sneek-boxes and sailing prams, with the commodore's Snipe sailing as dinghy.

Arrangements with the Princeton University Yacht Club have been beneficial to the new group.

Cards Schedule Trout

The St. Louis Cardinals have announced that they will hold a trout camp in Trenton Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, July 11, 12 and 13. The sessions will take place at Helzel Field.

Players between 17 and 23 are invited to take part in the workouts, which will be held under the supervision of Cardinal scout Benjie Borgstam and Frank Crespi. They will begin at 10 o'clock each morning.

Players need bring only a glove, baseball shoes and, if they have one, a uniform. Harry Walker, Cardinal manager, points out that five members of the Redbirds' 1955 squad were discovered in try-out camps. They are Harvey Haddis, Herb Motford and Bobby Tiefenauer, pitchers; the rookie third baseman, Ken Boyer; and the veteran second baseman, Red Schoendienst.

Dinghy sailing has been a part of the Princeton scene in the past, but the University club's new dock and eight libreglas boats resulted in increased activity in recent months.

P. A. C. Still on Top. The Princeton Athletic Club baseball team continued its habit of starting in a hurry last week when it jumped to Hopewell for a five-run first inning. The locals' eventual 8-5 triumph on the losers' field went through books as their fourth triumph, and they continue in first place as the only unbeaten entry in the live-teen Bi-County League.

Six straight hits including a triple by Bill Rodetoff produced the five runs at Hopewell, with single tallies following in the third, fourth and fifth. Lee Zimmerman opened the round with a walk and Rodetoff drove him home with a 400-foot triple to right center.

Singles by Del Wible, Bob Montgomery, Walt Wells, Robin Foster and Harold Ross followed before the side was retired. Wells' double, a passed ball and Foster's good squeeze bunt produced another run in the third.

In the fourth, Rodetoff walked and came home on Wible's double to center, while singles by Foster and Bob Dennen bracketed a sacrifice for the final run in the fifth. The losers, meanwhile, were making threatening gestures and a P. A. C. change in pitchers was necessary in the third.

Hopewell reached starter Ray Davis for two hits and a run in the second. Three more safeties produced as many runs in the third, and Manager Chick Davis took over the hurling assignment with none out and men on second and third.

He struck out the first two batters to face him, walked the next intentionally and then fanned another for the final out. The victory was credited to him for hurling the greater part of the seven-inning contest.

League action saw Princeton play here on Brokaw Field in a mid-week contest before journeying to Montgomery Township this Friday. The P. A. C. will also be on the road Tuesday evening to play Nechemie, with its next game at home set for 6:15 Friday, July 8. Hopewell will be here then.

A practice game was played last week against a Penns Neck nine, and another team from Yardley was here Wednesday. A return contest at Yardley is scheduled for next Wednesday.

planned holiday program has been scheduled for Brokaw Field.

The four-team circuit will be composed of entries sponsored by L. C. Bowers & Sons, Matthews Construction Co., the Nassau Oil Co. and the Mercer Floor Sanding Company. The first three firms backed teams in the league last summer, while Mercer Floor Sanding is a new sponsor.

Bob Sinkler, long active in this recreation program, will manage the new team. It is the third he has directed in the league.

Jim Brown and Vince Sculerati will again be in charge of the Matthews Construction team. Jimmy Jackson, a former manager of the Jugtown Giants in the YMCA's Midget League, will be in charge of the Nassau Oil nine.

Four men will aid in managing the Bowers team, which won the championship in 1954. Carl Konover, Maurice Coffee, Edward Swinnerton and Howard Page will all take a hand, with two of them present for each contest.

B. E. Bergesen will again serve as director of the league, making all arrangements, drawing up the schedule and assigning the umpires. The project is a part of the summer recreation program of which C. Edward Christian is the supervisor.

Wreck to Go on View. The smashed bits of the car in which five youths died and a sixth was critically injured will go on display in Mercer County from Monday, July 11, until Friday, July 15. The accident occurred last week near Somerville, the result of a head-on collision at a speed of more than 60 miles an hour.

The exhibition, part of a state-wide tour for the ugly pile of twisted metal has been arranged by Attorney General Grover C. Richman Jr. It is part of an attempt to shock drivers into a realization of what happens on crowded parkways when people travel at high speeds.

"In viewing this wreckage, many drivers will recall the 'close one' they may have experienced in passing when it was not safe to do so," Mr. Richman said. "Everyone should realize that an urge to overtake and pass every vehicle ahead for the sake of saving a few seconds can be fatal."

He said that the car had been loaned to the state and that, with the cooperation of the New Jersey Motor Truck Association, it will be carried to seven counties for public viewing. A motor vehicle inspector will be at each display place to describe the cause of the accident.

Truckers Back to Work. A truckers' strike at the Kingston Trap Rock Company which caused injury to two workers last week has been stopped temporarily by a restraining order issued by Superior Court Judge C. Thomas Schettino.

The strike was reportedly sparked by the company's proposal that it sell its fleet of trucks, to be operated independently by the drivers. It offered each driver the opportunity to buy the vehicle with the profits he made in trucking, rather than demanding immediate payment.

The union, Local 701 A.F.L. Teamsters and Chauffeurs Union, said that the offer had come in answer to demands for a union contract paying $2.24 an hour and welfare benefits rather than the $1.25 the men were receiving. The union claimed that the workers, previously unorganized, had become union members.

Two men, Louis DeCleric of Ewing Township and Albert Richmond of Linden, were injured slightly when a truck loaded with crushed stone drove through the picket line at the Pennington quarry, to which the strike had spread. The driver was not a Kingston Company employee but an independent, company officials stated.

I.O.O.F. Initiates. John Nicol, a new member, received his first and second degrees from degree master Henry Wheeler and his degree team at the last meeting of the Nassau Lodge No. 106, I.O.O.F.

At the same meeting, the members heard a report from William Mitchell and Everett E. Satterthwait on the Grand Lodge Session at Atlantic City. It was also announced that Miss Gail Stadler will be the lodge's representative for six days at the United Nations in New York.

The New Jersey Poll

CONFIDENCE IS GREATER
IN FUTURE OF BUSINESS
IN STATE, POLL REVEALS

At the half-year mark, confidence in the state's business and job prospects is greater today than it has been at any time during the past 26 months.

A New Jersey Poll survey just completed shows that a substantial majority of the state's adult citizens expects more or the same amount of business and jobs for the state during the next few years than it had during the past year or two. At the same time, about one in every four expects less business and fewer jobs.

In other words, those who see more or the same amount of business and jobs for New Jersey during the next few years outnumber by a margin of better than five to two those who see less business and fewer jobs ahead.

In conducting today's Poll on business and job conditions, a continuing feature of the New Jersey Poll, staff reporters put this question to a cross-section of the state's adult citizens:

"How do you feel about business conditions in New Jersey for the next few years? Do you think there'll be more business and more jobs than during the past year or two or less business and fewer jobs?"

The statewide results:

More or the same amount	68%
More	36%
Same	32%
Less	26%
No opinion	6%

One year ago—in June, 1954—58 per cent expected more or the same amount of business and jobs; 36 per cent expected less; 6 per cent expressed no opinion. Today's findings thus represent 10 per cent more optimism and 10 per cent less pessimism than a year ago.

Important, too, is the fact that the proportion of the state's population expecting the same or more business and jobs in the state is higher today than it has been at any time during the past twenty-six months—since April, 1953. It is not, however, so high as it was in the period between June, 1951, and April, 1953.

Here is the trend since December, 1947, when the New Jersey Poll first began measurements on the question:

	More or Same	Less	No Opin.
Dec. 1947	50%	39	11
June, 1948	53%	31	16
June, 1949	32%	60	8
June, 1950	56%	37	7
June, 1951	81%	12	7
June, 1952	71%	20	9
April, 1953	70%	16	14
June, 1953	64%	31	5
June, 1954	58%	36	6
TODAY	68%	26	6

The public confidence in business and job prospects shown in today's survey should be good for New Jersey business.

It seems only reasonable to assume that as long as New Jersey people are confident about their business and job prospects, they will face the future with optimism and thus be more likely to buy new automobiles, houses, and other things they need—the end result being still more business and jobs for the state.

E. T. S. Activities. Lewis B. Ward, the Director of Admissions and Assistant Dean of the Harvard Business School, has been appointed Director of Executive Research at Educational Testing Service, Dr. Henry Chauncey, President, announced this week.

Dr. Ward, who joined the Harvard staff in 1946 after receiving his bachelor and doctor degrees from Yale University, served for four years in the Aviation Psychology Program of the Air Force. He directed a psychological testing and research unit and later directed research in operational training. He will live with his family at 70 Jefferson Road.

Three members of the E. T. S. staff are participating in the meetings of the National Commission on Teacher Education and Professional Standards this week in De Kalb, Illinois.

Miss Anna Dragositz, Arthur L. Benson and John E. Dobbin will meet with the group discussing "The Improvement of the Use of Tests by Classroom Teachers: Implications for Teacher Education." They also took part in a clinical session on measuring pupil growth.

Miss Paula Thibault of the E.T.S. staff attended the evaluating conferences in French and Spanish of the School and College Study with Advanced Standing at Brown University last week.

The three-day discussion covered the possibilities of accelerating the programs of younger-than-college age students. Similar conferences are being held on other college campus during the summer under the auspices of the Ford Foundation's Fund for the Advancement of Adult Education.

ZONING CLEARANCE GIVEN: Architect's sketch of the proposed St. Paul's Catholic Church, scheduled to replace the present structure at the corner of Nassau and Moore Streets, part of a million dollar building program. See below for details.

News of the Churches

Zoning Settled. Demolition has begun on St. Paul's Church and convent, the first step in the $1,000,000 building program which the church hopes to complete within the next 18 months. Starting this Sunday, services will be held in the auditorium of St. Paul's school until the new church has been completed.

St. Paul's zoning problems were solved when the Borough Zoning Board recommended to the mayor and council that the church be granted three variances to the borough zoning ordinance. The four-to-one decision of the Board came last Thursday in executive session following a public hearing.

According to the ordinance, property owners living within 200 feet of the proposed buildings must agree to the requested variances. John Archer, owner of the University Laundry at 30 Moore, and Eugene Margerum of 18 Chestnut Street, expressed their willingness to have the variances granted. No one spoke against the church's request.

If the mayor and council follow the Zoning Board's recommendation, St. Paul will be able (1) to build within 31 feet from Moore Street instead of the 96 feet required by the zoning law; (2) to have a partial obstruction on the Moore Street side of the new church building; and (3) to provide parking space for only 153 cars instead of the 348 specified in the code for such properties.

However, St. Paul's has agreed to widen the proposed driveway on Moore Street to provide both entrance and exit. This will relieve traffic on Nassau Street.

The rectory will remain as a home for St. Paul's sisters until the new convent has been completed, and then it will be torn down. St. Paul's staff of priests will live in a leased house near the church until the new rectory has been built. John McEbin of Trenton is the contractor for the three new structures.

Institute to Begin. "The Living God in the Contemporary Situation" will be the general theme of the Institute of Theology sponsored by Princeton Theological Seminary, scheduled to begin Monday, July 31 at 7:30 p. m. at that time, Ralph W. Soekman, pastor of Christ Methodist Church, New York, will deliver the opening address. "To Preach the Whole Gospel." The Institute will continue through July 21.

The Rev. David H. C. Read, Chaplain to Her Majesty the Queen in Scotland, will lead the Convocation Period at 11 a. m. during the second week of the Institute. The Rev. Dr. Read was a prisoner in German prison camps during the war and Chaplain to prisoners until he was released by the American Third Army. Following the war, he became Chaplain to Edinburgh University, and when the Duke of Edinburgh became honorary Chancellor of the University, the Rev. Dr. Read was given his present post as Chaplain to her Majesty in Scotland.

During the first week of the Institute there will be a Bible hour under the direction of The Rev. Bruce M. Metzger. The Rev. Ernest Gordon will lead the Bible hour during the second week of the Institute.

There will be various elective courses given by members of the Princeton Theological Seminary faculty and visiting lecturers including the Rev. Edward A. Dowry, Jr., of McCormick Theological Seminary, Chicago, the Rev. Theodore A. Gill of "Christian Century" and the Rev. Wayne E. Oates of the Southern Baptist Seminary, Louisville.

Edwin Wright of the State Department will open a series on "Living Concerns of Our Time" on July 12. E. Harris Harbison and Richard K. Toner of the Princeton University faculty will speak in this series.

Residents of the Princeton area may attend all classes and meetings for a registration fee of $5. For further information, write Dr. J. Christy Wilson, Princeton Theological Seminary.

Summer Union. Sunday evening Presbyterian services have been discontinued for the summer. Princeton's three congregations will join in Sunday morning Union Services starting next Sunday, July 10. A full schedule of the services with the pastors in charge of each, will be carried next week in Town Topics.

that are self-sustaining without the iron.

First is a plisse petticoat, a fabric that seems to be embossed in a kind of minute spiral pattern. It has a batiste ruffle that is permanently pleated, a shadow panel that is useful with sheers and a no-iron price tag that says $2.98.

The summer kitchen used to be dark: a green, blue and navy
plaid that isn't quite Black Watch, and a brown nylon and cotton with white collar and cuffs. Very tailored and useful, right into fall. The plaid is $10.95,
the brown is $9.95.

Moss green dacron with a slight nub to the weave, makes a shirtwaist dress with long, French-cuffed sleeves and full skirt. It costs $13.95. Pima cotton has been used in a skirt (navy, grey, black) with unpressed pleats and a patent belt. Priced at $4.98.

If your summer uniform is a uniform, look at Bailey's white batiste with a slip-dent stripe like a man's sport shirt, and priced at $5.98. It has short, cool sleeves and a tucked bib effect in front.

Here's a bathing suit with a long torso, for goodness' sake. It's navy, with a six-inch pleated
"skirt" that makes it come out
the same length as a regular suit.
Looks rather like a kilt, as a matter of fact.

A shirred plaid suit is strapless (there are straps, for the wary) with a cuff of white pique. Bathing suits on the Bailey racks start at 5.95 and go to $12.95.

A little girl's suit costs $2.98,
and might be a severe navy with white cuffs top and bottom, or a giddy print in yellow, pink or rose. Children's Ship 'n' Shore blouses are $1.98, cut with no
sleeves from a fabric like linen.
They are white, piped at the round collar with navy or red.

deCoppet Collection Opened. A collection of American historical documents valued at more than $270,000 and covering the whole range of the nation's history from the Colonial period to 1942 is now on display in Princeton University's Firestone Library. The collection was received by the university as the bequest of Andre de-Coppet, a member of the Princeton Class of 1915 and one of the foremost collectors of this century.

Dr. Harold W. Dodds, president of Princeton, described the display as "the most important collection of such material ever acquired by the University, a gift which significantly augments
the resources of the University Library in American history." The first public exhibition of the collection emphasizes the scope of the documents included.

The deCoppet manuscripts extend from 1566, the date of letters of Catherine de Medici and Charles IX relating to the colonization of Florida, up to 1942. Letters from all the Presidents of the United States from George Washington through Harry S.
Truman are included.

Although Colonial America is well represented in the collection,
the great majority of the manuscripts date from the founding of the United States, the first half of the 19th century and the Civil War, according to Alexander P.
Clark, Curator of Manuscripts in the University Library. The full collection is estimated to contain more than 3,700 documents.

Military figures represented in the collection include Nathanael Greene, William T. Sherman and Robert E. Lee as well as Revolutionary War figures such as John Paul Jones, Benedict Arnold and

the Marquis de Lafayette. In addition to manuscripts of Presidents and military leaders, such Americans as Benjamin Franklin,
Samuel Adams, Alexander Hamilton, Patrick Henry and John C. Calhoun are also represented.

Perhaps the most unusual letter in the collection is one signed by George Washington and his Secretary of State, Thomas Jefferson, appointing John Paul Jones U. S. Consul at the port of Algiers. This letter arrived at the naval hero's residence in France
a few days after his death on July 18, 1792.

Included in the 150 manuscripts
of Abraham Lincoln is a page
endorsed by the nation's 16th President, "Ms of Speech in Douglas Campaign." Upon the manuscript for this speech, one in the famous Lincoln-Douglas Debates of 1858, Lincoln noted,
"With me, the pace of ambition
has been a failure — a flat failure; with him (Douglas), it has been one of splendid success—his name fills the Nation; and it not unknown, even, in foreign lands."

In addition to letters of Presidents, military figures and political leaders in the collection
are a number of diaries, American broadsides dating back to the 18th and early 19th centuries and more than 1,000 specimens of 18th century American paper currency. These and other types of historical evidence enhance the research value of the decop-pet Collection.

A former head of the New York brokerage firm of deCoppet
and Doremus, Andre deCoppet presented some 34,000 documents relating to the Napoleonic Kingdom of Italy from 1804 to 1814 to the University Library. Mr. de-Coppet died in Switzerland in 1953.

Beware — of Old Abandoned Refrigerators

There is a great danger in the menacing form of that old, discarded ice box or refrigerator that you may have in your back yard.

Every year children die from suffocation because they love to play in these dangerous cabinets. Here's what you should do if you see a discarded box in your neighborhood
or in the junk yard:

Remove the door. It's the best way to make such a cabinet safe.

Remove the latch on the door by taking out the screws on the door plate.

• Drill holes in the door and remove the rubber gasket

OR

... Tell the policeman in your neighborhood about this dangerous menace.

Lawrenceville Topics

Named at Miss Fine's. Fred A. Elchelberger, a faculty member at the Lawrenceville School, has been named chairman of the board of trustees of Miss Fine's School, Princeton, for the coming academic year.

Lewis Perry, Jr., also a member of the Lawrenceville faculty, is another member of the board at Miss Fine's. (For further details, see Topics of the Town.)

Jewelry Stolen. A diamond and turquoise ring worth $1,000, two less valuable pins and two ring boxes were stolen last week from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bedford on Carter Road.

The Bedfords, who live at 36 Boudinot Street, Princeton, in the winter, discovered the theft after they had moved to the Lawrenceville house, their summer home. Mrs. Bedford reported the theft to Patrolman James Olesl of the Lawrence Township Police, who said there was no sign of breaking and entering.

The pins were described by Mrs. Bedford as a round one set with coral and a stickpin with a moonstone ruby. Mr. Bedford is the president of the Luzerne Rubber Company in Trenton.

Steal, Smash, Scoot. Two youths, 15 and 16 years old respectively, gave themselves up to the Lawrence Township Police after hiding for 48 hours in the woods because they stole a car and wrecked it.

The youths, who were not identified, took the car of Wallace B. Marks, of 128 Roxborough Road, while it was parked on the Lawrenceville Road. After crashing into two cars, one owned by Warren M. Grover of 11 Alcazar Street, the boys fled to the woods, where they eluded police for two days before coming out.

School Benefits from Estate. Lawrenceville School was the sole recipient from the estate of Hans G. Rastede, head of the German Department and house-master there. Mr. Rastede died suddenly on June 5 in the school infirmary.

A bachelor with no close relatives, Mr. Rastede directed his executor, Horace J. Farlee of Lambertville to turn over all his assets to the trustees of the school, to be used at their discretion. He also directed that his body be cremated and his ashes "scattered anywhere."

Built and Sold. The following building permits have been issued for Lawrence Township by Charles Hirsch, building inspector:

School will meet at 9:30 a. m. and the Westminster Fellowship at 7 p. m. under the leadership of Paul McKowan.

Christian Science. For this Sunday at 11 a. m. and 8:15 p. m., the Lesson-Sermon is "God", with a text from Psalm 77, and readings from Deuteronomy. Sunday School will meet at 11 a. m., and the Wednesday evening testimonial at 8:15.

Society of Friends. The meeting for worship will be held at 11 a. m. at the Meeting House on Quaker Road.

St. Paul's Roman Catholic. Masses will be offered hourly this Sunday from 6 a. m. to 11 a. m. in the auditorium of St. Paul's School. Novena Devotions will begin Monday evening at 8 p. m. in the auditorium.

Princeton Jewish Center. New officers have been elected to serve the Center for the coming year. They are Norman Denard, president; Murray Abelson, first vice-president; Mrs. William Z. Abrams, second vice-president; Mrs. Emanuel Greenblatt, secretary; Mrs. James Schwartz, corresponding secretary; and Albert Russinoff, treasurer. The new trustees are Mrs. M. H. Bernstein and Bernard Haines. Seymour Bogdanoff, as retiring president, also becomes a trustee.

Rocky Hill Reformed. Harvey Noordsy, student at New Brunswick Seminary, will speak at the 11 a. m. service this Sunday. Mr. Noordsy will occupy the pulpit for the next five Sundays.

Paying $50 apiece for the offense were Sidney Bryant, 20, of 315 Grand Avenue; Frederick A. Washington, 18, of 106 Parkinson Avenue, and Benjamin Barge, 28, of 331 Berg Avenue. The arresting officers were Patrolmen Nicholas Loveless and William Seabridge.
